Commercial Our knowledgeable and dedicated staff is ready to fulfill any of your transcription needs.

With an average of 20 years' experience, our transcriptionists are familiar with virtually any type of transcription your organization would require: focus groups, convention speeches, government communication, law enforcement interviews, corporate training material, corporate manuals, medical research projects, research interviews, annual meetings, insurance statements, security investigations, oral history and documentary manuscripts, and much, much more! We have rock-solid, on-site, secure file transfer protocol (FTP) sites which clients can access without charge, day or night, 7 days a week to submit media files. We also offer pickup service in the Chicagoland area for a small additional fee. All finished work is guaranteed to be accurate and within your specifications. In addition, the Bureau offers volume and new-customer discounts.
