Research Working on a dissertation, special paper for your professor or boss? Article? Book? Need a transcript of a "hot" lecture or a webcast? Deadline next week--yesterday? No time to do it yourself? You've come to the right place!

Our staff of specialists will help you reach your goal. You need to get your ideas and information organized in the fastest way possible. There is no faster way to communicate than to speak. You provide the audio and we'll put it into the format you want. We'll do it accurately and save you time and worry. Handle your day-to-day activities, relax and get a good night's sleep. The transcript will be in your e-mail box when you need it!

Our offerings include high quality, accurate and confidential transcripts. In addition, our sophisticated audio and video pre-processing technologies complement our staffs' capability to quickly overcome the technical challenges that cause others to stumble. Our procedures, equipment and expertise gives us the ability to:

- Enhance deficient recordings
- Recognize interview participants
- Identify context and subject changes
- Document overlapping speech
- Accurately interpret specialized terminology and jargon

Depending on your needs, we offer the following options for research transcription processing:

- Time coding per your specifications
- Precise verbatim (including "uhms and uhs" and "stut-stuttering")
- Loose verbatim (remove "uhms and uhs" and any non-verbal utterances)
- Language translation
- Speaker and participant identification or generic Q: and A: identification
- Special formatting and templates per your specifications
